Thank you for your participation in the Dana V. Music Key Players Music Mentoring Program. We are currently seeking new students from elementary through high school who display an interest in music but have been unable to pursue lessons. We are very excited about adding new students to this successful program with the help of educators like you who have contact with children and recognize musical potential. We appreciate your willingness to help us identify students whom you believe would be a good fit for this sponsorship program and are including some criteria which we believe will facilitate the process. Please fill in this sheet and add as much information as you wish in the space provided below.
